SATURDAY 29 MAY

1. Seabirds Boat trip

Braye Harbour (14.00 - 16.30)

Adult £27.00 / Child £22.00 (15 years of age or younger)

Alderney is home to the principal seabird colonies of the Channel Islands and this special boat based tour with the Trust's principal ecologist, Jen Stockdale, is the very best way to get up close to puffins, gannets, fulmars and much more.

Ideal for the whole family

Guide: Jen Stockdale

Boarding of vessel may be by dinghy, or involve ladders or the use of landing slips. Weather dependent.

2. Nocturnal Nature

Essex Farm (2000-2300)

Adult £8.00 / Child £4.00 (members half price)

2000 Bat and Hedgehog walk

2130 Drinks at Essex

2200 Owl Walk

Great fun for all the family (or those that can stay awake)

Guides: Roland Gauvain, Keris Burt, Mark Atkinson, Alastair Riley, Jen Stockdale

SUNDAY 30 MAY

3. Longis Live (AKA Longistock)

Essex Farm (1400-2100)

Adult £TBC / Child £TBC (members half price)

Alderney's very own family music festival. Local and visiting bands, family activities, food, drink and FUN.

Very much a family affair

MONDAY 31 MAY

4. Urban Birds

Alderney Tourist Information Centre (1700-1930)

Adults £10.00 / Children £5.00 (members half price)

Get up-close and personal with the feathered residents of urban (suburban) Alderney with a tour around St. Anne in the company of David Lindo.

Whether you are a keen birder or a beginner who never realized your garden was a bird's paradise here's the chance to get an inside glimpse of some of the best locations to see Alderney's birdlife in the very best of company. All this is rounded off with a drink in one of the island's best local establishments (included in the price.)

Ideal for beginners and intermediates who want to know what they're missing in their own backyard.

Guides: David Lindo, Alastair Riley, Mark Atkinson, Jen Stockdale

TUESDAY 1 JUNE

5. The Wooded Heart

Harbour Lights Hotel (0900 - 1230)

Adult £6.00 / Child £3.00 (members half price)

0900 Join our gentle walk through the heart of our island, see its wooded splendour and wildlife, and visit the island's community woodland site. This is a walk about the role of woodlands on a small island, their importance for wildlife (local experts will be present for information on insects, mammals and birds) and their importance for us, the people who live on Alderney

1045 A mid-morning break on the Rochers, tea coffee and a chat

1115 Knowing your trees; local tree surgeon, Simeon Francis, and Wildlife Trust Conservation Officer, Keris Burt, will be holding an open surgery on getting to grips with how to care for your trees, where and when to cut, transfer and plant. Bring some gloves and get a chance to learn new skills and refresh old ones under their instruction.

Good fun for adults and older children

Guides: Keris Burt, Simeon Francis, Mark Atkinson, Alastair Riley, David Wedd

WEDNESDAY 2 JUNE

6. The Power of Nature Boat Trip

Braye Harbour (1400-1630)

Adult £27.00 / Child £22.00 (15 years of age or younger)

The Alderney 'Race' and 'Swinge' are infamous tidal streams which have struck fear into the hearts of mariners but have offered a haven for wildlife for centuries. This new tour will take you to the limit of this incredible force of nature on the MS Voyager and offer you the chance to see first hand how the wildlife thrives on the edge. Including close passes to the puffin colony on Burhou, the grey seal colonies of the Renonquet Reef and the gannetry of Ortac.

Intense fun for adults and older children

Guide: Roland Gauvain

Boarding of vessel may be by dinghy, or involve ladders or the use of landing slips. Weather dependent.

7. Urban Birding A Talk by David Lindo

Alderney Museum (1800-1930)

Adult £6.00 / Child £3.00 (members half price)

1800 Drinks in the Alderney Museum

1830-1930 Urban birding David Lindo

A fascinating experience for adults and older children

Speaker: David Lindo

THURSDAY 3 JUNE

8. Break Your Fast with Seabirds over Breakfast

Essex Farm Field Centre (0730-1030)

With breakfast: Adult £12.00 / Child £6.00

(members half price)

Without breakfast: Adult £6.00 / Child £3.00

(Members half price)

Birds don't tend to take a lie-in in the morning and the early bird is the one that catches the worm. So why not start your day with freshly cooked breakfast (made with the best local produce) and take advantage of the time of day to get the most from Alderney. Starting at Essex Farm with breakfast on the lawns before setting off to catch the best of the day visiting Longis Common and beach before heading down to the foreshore to see whats around.

This is an ideal event for intermediate birders who enjoy their spotting with a few creature comforts along the way

Guides: David Lindo, Alastair Riley, Mark Atkinson, Jen Stockdale, David Wedd

FRIDAY 4 JUNE

9. Making the Post Out of Wood

Essex Farm Field Centre (0900 - 1230)

Adult £6.00 / Child £3.00 (members half price)

0900 Woodland is a scarce resource on Alderney but it provides a vital habitat for our insects, mammals and birds as well as being a vital commodity for sustaining our island way of life. In years gone by Alderney produced its own crab and lobster pots from willow withies and timber for fuel and building. Join us to discover more about the history of woodland on our island, its past and present uses and how our wildlife makes best use of it.

1045 A mid-morning break on the Rochers, tea coffee and a chat

1115 Local Tree Surgeon, Simeon Francis, and some of the Trust's conservation volunteers will be on hand to demonstrate the art of willow laying and to offer you the chance to weave willow screens for use on the island. Advice and information will also be available as to what trees might offer more than ornamental use in your garden.

Ideal for all the family

Guides: Keris Burt, Simeon Francis, Mark Atkinson, Alastair Riley

SATURDAY 5 JUNE

10. Casquets Boat Trip

Braye Harbour (0900-1230)

Adults £35.00 (16 years or over ONLY)

Casquets rock is the furthest landmass associated with Alderney. Join one of these scarce and ever popular trips out to Casquets Lighthouse to learn more of the history of this incredible outpost and go pelagic (deep water) in your bird watching on your return trip. The trip includes hot drinks and expert guidance.

Guide: Jen Stockdale

Limited to 8 passengers so book early!

Boarding of vessel may be by dinghy, or involve ladders or the use of landing slips. Weather dependent.

11. Alderney Wildlife Society (Trust) 8th Annual General Meeting

Essex Farm Field Centre (1800-1900)

Donations towards costs gratefully received

2010 will be a year of momentous projects and because of this we will be treating the AGM as a membership evening with drink, nibbles and presentations taking place after the AGM itself.

After 4 years' dedicated service Brian Bonnard will be standing down as President of the Trust. The Trust is actively seeking new applicants for positions on the Board and to act in advisory roles for specific projects.

Nominations to positions on the Committee of the Society, or the Board of the Trust, must be received a min 7/max 35 days prior to the meeting from a current member of the Trust.

EVENTS PROGRAMME

With Special Guest

Star of BBCs 'Springwatch'

David Lindo

is 'The Urban Birder', bringing a fresh, urban perspective to modern birding. David first appeared on our screens as a contributor on Springwatch in 2006 where he took viewers for a guided bird walk around his 'garden', Wormwood Scrubs, in west London. From a very early age David knew that he was destined to be into wildlife. At the age of 8 he led 'tours' around his primary school woods for his schoolmates. Previously Head of Membership at the British Trust for Ornithology, David is the author of many articles on urban birds and writes for various websites and magazines including BBC Wildlife Magazine and the RSPB's membership magazine, Birds.
