

Alderney has a wide choice of accommodation to offer its visitors. Most hotels and guest houses are privately owned and are family-run. They range from excellent quality establishments with fine restaurants to delightful guest houses and cosy self-catering accommodation. Whatever your choice, you will find a warm Alderney welcome and a desire to make your visit one to remember.

Booking your accommodation

All hotels, guest houses and self-catering establishments feature on our website www.visitalderney.com in the "Where to Stay" section which provides direct e-mail and website links to the relevant establishments. All hotels, guest houses and self-catering accommodation listed, and any late additions featured on our website, are regularly inspected by the States of Alderney's appointed Accommodation Inspector and must display a valid accommodation permit. For locations, please refer to the map.

The rates for hotels, guest houses and self-catering accommodation as listed, should be considered as guidelines only as they may vary according to type of room and season:

Low Season: November - March;

Mid Season: April, May & October;

High Season: June - September.

*Rates for hotels and guest houses are per person, per night, bed and breakfast, based on 2 people sharing. Self-catering rates are weekly unless stated otherwise.

The only site on the island where camping is permitted. Situated in a superb location, on the very edge of beautiful Saye Bay, it offers all the facilities for the perfect, relaxed camping holiday.

Full equipped tents are also available for hire.

For particulars and weekly rental tariffs please contact the owner or agent directly. All tariffs and prices correct at the time of printing.

There may be extra charges for electricity, gas and laundry. Please verify at the time of booking.

Go to www.visitalderney.com - section Where to Stay "Availability and Reservations" for online bookings and accommodation bookings directly by email.

LIABILITY OF THE STATES

The States of Alderney Tourist Department accepts no responsibility for any dispute(s) arising between any individual(s) and the proprietor(s) of any establishment, whether arising directly or indirectly from any contract or engagement being entered into as a result of particulars given in this, or any other publication of the States.

COMMENDATIONS AND COMMENTS

Commendations and suggestions are welcomed. Complaints should be made in the first instance to the management. If satisfaction does not result, visitors, if they so desire, may call on the Accommodation Inspector, States of Alderney, before leaving the island, as complaints lodged after the visitor has left Alderney cannot be dealt with satisfactorily.
